

Tennessee Marriage License Requirements

You must be at least 18 years of age. Each party must present either a Valid Driver's License or a Certified Birth Certificate, or a Valid Passport. If your Driver's License does not list your social security number, bring your social security card with you to the Courthouse.

No Waiting Period! No Blood Test!

Once you apply for your Tennessee marriage license, the license application is good for a period of 30 days. If you are not married within the 30 day period, it will be necessary for you to re-apply for the marriage license. Since there is no waiting period, you can apply for your TN marriage license and be married the same day.

If you have been divorced and taken back your Maiden Name and your current driver's license does not reflect your Maiden Name, it will be necessary for you to bring your Divorce Decree indicating the name change when you apply for your Tennessee marriage license.
